

Full use cases defined.

Actors:

Teacher

Student

Use cases:

Sign up.

Login.

Browse website.

Make report.

Upload report.

Search report.

Download report.

See list of users.

Use cases explanation:

Sign up. Student and teacher make an account to access the website.

Login. Student and teacher can login to the website to access its resources.

Browse website. Teacher and student can look through the website for any information on a city, country and country language regarding population.

Make report. Teacher can create report regarding population of a city and country from the data provided.

Upload report. Teachers can upload a report for their students to utilise as resources for their homework or coursework.

Search report. Student and teacher can both search for a specific report on the website.

Download report. Student and teacher can download a report to use as a resource or use for homework regarding population information.

See list of users. Teachers can see a list of students that have visited the website.